To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Allison Diamond, and I am Executive Assistant to Tom Hanks. Mr. Hanks and our team recently spent 2 months in Malta making the movie, "Captain Phillips" and Nadine Pecorella was our local production liaison on the island for that project.

I worked with Nadine initially on sourcing accommodation options for Mr. Hanks on the island – both hotel suites and private houses – and her extensive local expertise and relationships, as well as her outstanding ability and willingness to help us in many other ways, meant she soon became an integral part of our team there. She dealt with our many requests – large and small – perfectly, professionally and efficiently, and always did so with a smile on her face. And when we had no requests to make of her, she anticipated our needs and took care of everything without us even having to ask!

Working with a high-profile celebrity has many challenges, all of which she took in her stride, and her personal integrity, honesty, local knowledge and creativity made her instantly invaluable to us.

I cannot speak highly enough of Nadine, both personally and professionally. It was a delight working with her, and an equal delight just to get to know her. She truly made our experience on the island an absolute pleasure, and Mr. Hanks and I could not have been happier with the level of service provided.

I would highly recommend Nadine to anybody who may be visiting Malta for any reason, and I have no doubt that – in her capable hands – any visitor would leave the island looking forward to their next visit there, as are we.

Yours sincerely,

Allison Diamond
